

Terms & Conditions of Sale

Standard trading terms and conditions of the company (including surety ship and cession of book debts)

Definitions

In these terms and conditions the following words have the following meanings: "Contract" any contract between the Company and the Customer for the sale and purchase of Goods. "Company" NSK South Africa (Pty) Limited or any other member of the NSK group engaged in the contract. "Customer" the person(s) or company whose order for Goods is accepted by the Company. "Goods" any goods which the Company is to supply to the Customer (including any of them or any part of them)

1. Price

The price of the goods shall be stated on the Company Order Form and/or any other Company Forms, price lists or stationery. Prices are subject to change without prior notification and prices ruling at the time of dispatch shall apply unless alternative pricing terms have been agreed to between the Company and the Customer in writing. The price for the Goods is exclusive of any value added tax.

2. Payment

2.1 Payment is to be made 30 (thirty) days from the end of the month in which the goods were delivered, unless other payment terms have been agreed in writing.

2.2 The Customer shall not be entitled to any rebates and/or discounts unless a director or manager of the Company shall have agreed to such rebates and/or discounts in writing and provided further that:

2.2.1 even if the director/manager of the Company has agreed to such rebate/discount, the Customer shall not be entitled to same if payment is overdue in respect of any goods;

2.3 In all cases where the Customer uses a postal service to effect payment, to deliver or return goods, such postal services shall be deemed to be the agent of the Customer.

2.4 Should any amount not be paid by the Customer on due date then the whole amount in respect of all purchases by the Customer shall become due, owing and payable irrespective of the dates when the goods were purchased and the Customer shall be liable to pay interest in respect of unpaid amounts as at the due date at the rate of 2% above the prime overdraft lending rate of the Company's Bank, compounded, on all overdue amounts from due date until date of payment, calculated and payable monthly in advance and should the said interest not be paid in full as aforesaid, the same shall be added to the principal sum, and the total shall form the principal debt which shall then bear interest in the manner as set out above.

2.5 The Customer shall not be entitled to set off any monies due to it by the Company, against any amounts owing by it to the Company.

2.6 The Company may appropriate all payments made by the Customer to such accounts as it will in its sole and absolute discretion decide.

3. Withdrawal of credit Facilities

The Company reserve the right to withdraw any credit facilities granted by the Company to the Customer, at any time without prior notice to the Customer and the nature and extent of such facilities shall at all times be in the Company's sole discretion.

4. Orders

4.1 All orders, including oral orders, shall be deemed to be offers to purchase, and the Customer shall provide the Company with an order number when placing any such order with the Company.

4.2 Orders shall be subject to confirmation and acceptance by the Company and such acceptance shall be confirmed by the dispatch of goods or confirmation in writing by the Company.

4.3 Orders accepted by the Company are irrevocable and shall not be varied or cancelled by the Customer, except with the written consent of the Company.

5. Delivery

5.1 The Company shall have the right to refuse to accept any new orders and/or suspend deliveries in respect of existing orders if any amounts due by the Customer remain unpaid.

5.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Company's delivery terms are ex works (Incoterms 2010).

5.3 Whilst every effort will be made to dispatch goods timely, the Company does not guarantee dispatch on any specific date and shall not be liable for any damages for failure to effect delivery / dispatch timely for any reason beyond the Company's control, including but not limited to, inability to secure labour, power, materials, equipment or supplies or by reason or an act of God, war, civil disturbance, riot, state emergency, strike, lockout or other labour disputes, fire, flood, drought or legislation. The Customer shall not be entitled to cancel any order in the event of there being a delay in the delivery thereof, and the Customer expressly acknowledges that time shall not be of the essence in the Company executing any orders notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any order placed by the Customer with the Company.

5.4 Proper delivery of goods invoiced shall be deemed to have taken place when the Company delivers the goods to the Customer's premises and any employee of the Customer signs the delivery note or Invoice.

5.5 A carrier engaged by the Customer, or on behalf of the Customer by the Company, shall be deemed to be agent of the Customer and the risk in the goods shall pass to the Customer upon delivery to such carrier. The signature of any employee of the carrier on the Company's Invoice or delivery note, shall be deemed to be proof of delivery to the carrier.

5.6 Should the Company, at the Customer's request and on the Customer's behalf, agree to engage a carrier to transport goods to the Customer, the Company shall engage the carrier on such terms and conditions as it deems fit and the Customer indemnifies the Company against all demands and claims which may be made against it by the carrier so engaged and all liability which the Company may incur to the carrier arising out of the transportation of the goods.

5.7 Where the Customer requires any goods to be insured by the Company on its behalf, such request shall be directed to the Company in writing and the cost of Insurance shall be for the Customer's account. Notwithstanding that the Customer requires the Company to arrange such insurance, if such insurance is not effected by the Company, or is inadequate in respect of the goods so insured, the Company shall not be held liable by the Customer for any loss in regard to the foregoing.

5.8 Where the Company is requested by the Customer to withhold or postpone delivery in the event that the Company agrees to do so, the Customer shall pay for the costs of storage, demurrage interest, insurance, or any other charges occasioned by the postponement of delivery.

5.9 In the event, that the Company makes delivery to the customer in instalments, each instalment shall be deemed to be subject of a separate contract and non-delivery or delay in delivery of any instalment shall not affect the balance of the contract or entitle the Customer to cancel the contract and the terms and conditions of the agreement shall be the terms and conditions of each such separate contract.

6. Licences

6.1 The Customer is responsible for obtaining all documents, licences and authorizations which may be required to enable the Company to deliver the Goods to the Customer. For the avoidance of doubt the Company shall not be liable to the Customer for a failure to obtain any documents, licences and authorizations referred to in this Condition 6.

6.2 Certain products will be designated as "dual-use" and some countries designated as restricted and therefore subject to Trade and Export Restrictions and controls. The customer is responsible for identifying when export or trade restrictions may apply and to obtain a license or Government clearance as necessary

7. Negotiable Instruments

Acceptance of a negotiable instrument by the Customer shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the Company's rights under this agreement. In relation to cheques furnished by the Customer to the Company, the Customer waives its right to it in the event that the cheque is dishonoured.

8. Ownership and Risk

8.1 Notwithstanding that all risk in and to all goods sold by the Company to the Customer shall pass on delivery, ownership in all goods sold and delivered shall remain vested in the Company until the purchase price has been paid in full for the goods in question.

8.2 The Customer shall fully insure the goods purchased from the Company against loss or damage, until the full purchase price has been paid by the Customer for such goods, pending payment to the Company for goods purchased, all benefits in terms of the insurance policy relating to the insurance of such goods are hereby ceded to the Company.

9. Returnable Crates and Containers (only applicable if the customer is advised by the Company)

9.1 It is recorded that all crates and containers in which the goods are supplied by the Company to the Customer shall remain, at all times, the property of the Company and are never sold, despite the fact that the Customer shall pay to the Company a refundable deposit in respect of such crates or containers.

9.2 The Customer shall, at its own expense, return to the Company all crates and containers in which goods are supplied to it, and if not returned within a reasonable time, and in good order and condition, the Company shall be entitled to forfeit the deposit held by it in respect of such crates or containers, without in any way affecting the Customer's continuing obligation to return them.

9.3 The Customer is prohibited from using the crates and containers for any purposes other than the storing and transport of goods sold by the Company. In the event of the Customer using or permitting any such crates or containers to be used for any other purpose, the Company shall be entitled to claim forfeiture of the deposits held by it in respect of such crates or containers without prejudice to its rights to claim from the Customer any other damages it may have suffered as a result of such unauthorized use of the crates or containers.

10. Legal Proceedings

10.1 Regardless of the place of conclusion, execution, performance or breach under this contract or domicile of the Customer, this agreement and all modifications and amendments hereof, shall be governed by and decided upon and construed under and in accordance with the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

10.2 The Company shall, at its option and notwithstanding that the amount of its claim exceeds the jurisdiction of the Magistrates Court, be entitled to institute action out of such court.

10.3 In the event of the Company instituting legal proceedings against the Customer for a breach of its obligations in terms of this application for credit, or for damages in the event of the cancellation of this application for credit facilities by the Company pursuant to such breach, then the Customer shall be liable for all legal costs incurred by the Company on the attorney and own client scale including collection charges and tracing agent's fees.

10.4 A certificate under the hand of any director or manager of the Company, (whose authority need not be proved), in respect of any indebtedness of the Customer to the Company or in respect of any other fact, including but without limiting the generality of the foregoing the fact that such goods were sold and delivered, shall be prima facie evidence of the Customer's indebtedness to the Company and prima facie evidence of such other fact and prima facie evidence of the delivery of the goods.

10.5 The Customer's physical address referred to in Section A point 6 of the credit application shall be its domicilium citandi et executandi for all purposes in terms of this application for credit facilities.

11. Arbitration

11.1 The Company at its sole option shall be entitled to refer any dispute arising from or in connection with this application for credit facilities to arbitration, the award by the arbitrator being binding on both the Company and the Customer, and the Company shall be entitled to make such award an order of court if the Customer does not give effect thereto.

11.2 The arbitrator must be a person agreed upon by the parties or failing agreement, an arbitrator must be appointed by the Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa, who shall then finally resolve the dispute or issue in accordance with the Rules of the Arbitration Foundation of SA.

11.3 If the Company so stipulates, the arbitrator shall however be entitled to disregard the Rules of the Arbitration Foundation of South Africa and lay down the procedure to allow the dispute to be determined as expeditiously and cheaply as possible.

12. Intellectual Property

All patent, copyright, design, trade mark or other intellectual property rights in the Goods are and shall remain vested in the Company and nothing in these terms and conditions shall be construed as granting to the Customer a license or other right of manufacture of the Goods.

13. Electronic Information

Any information provided electronically by the Company is provided 'as is' and without warranties of any kind express or implied. Such information is the copyright of the Company, and may be used solely in connection with making purchases from the Company and not for any other purpose.
